Attorneys for United States of America

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

1 1. It is hereby stipulated and agreed by and between counsel for the United States and
2 counsel for defendant Scott Steever that, subject to the Court's approval, the Court enter an Amended
3 Judgment in this case pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 36. In support of this request, the 4 parties state as follows.

5 2. Based upon information received in connection with the sentencing of co-defendant
6 Robert Anderson, counsel discovered that the Judgment filed in this case on November 7, 2017,
7 incorrectly set forth an amount owing to one of the victims. A copy of the original Judgment is attached
8 hereto as Exhibit A. As set forth therein, the Judgment provides that the following victims should be
9 paid the following amounts:

10 B.M. $210,189.16

11 J.R. $45,000

12 V.A. $28,500

13 3. However, in connection with the sentencing of co-defendant Robert Anderson, the parties
14 learned that victim B.M has received compensation from co-defendant Anderson and from other
15 sources. Accordingly, the parties anticipate that the Judgment in Anderson's case will provide only for 16 restitution for victims J.R. and V.A., and will not provide for restitution for victim B.M. Steever has 17 joint and several liability for payment of restitution with co-defendant Anderson.

18 4. The parties received the Steever Judgment shortly after it was issued, but counsel did not
19 notice the error in the restitution provisions therein at that time. The error was realized in connection
20 with the sentencing of co-defendant Robert Anderson, which took place on January 24, 2018.

21 5. Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 36 provides in relevant part that "[a]fter giving any
22 notice it considers appropriate, the court may at any time correct a clerical error in a judgment . . . or 23 correct an error in the record arising from oversight or omission."

24 6. The parties now jointly request that the Court enter an Amended Judgment that amends
25 the Criminal Monetary Penalties section on page 6 to provide that restitution should be paid as follows:

26 J.R. $45,000

27 V.A. $28,500

1 Because victim B.M. has been fully reimbursed, references to "B.M." and "$210,189.16" should not
2 appear in the Criminal Monetary Penalties section on page 6 of the Judgment. Additionally, the total
3 amount of restitution set forth on pages 6 and 7 of the Judgment should reflect "$73,500" (instead of the 4 currently stated total amount of "$283,689.16").

6 IT IS SO STIPULATED.

14 [PROPOSED] ORDER

15 In accordance with the stipulation of the parties, and for good cause shown, the Court hereby
16 ORDERS that an Amended Judgment be issued that

17

(1) deletes the reference to "B.M." and "$210,189.16" in the Criminal Monetary Penalties
section on page 6 of the Judgment;

18

(2) reflects that restitution should be paid as follows:

19

20

V.A. $28,500; and,

21

(3) reflects that the total amount of restitution set forth on pages 6 and 7 of the Judgment is
"$73,500" (replacing the currently stated total amount of "$283,689.16").

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: Three years. This term consists of terms of three years on each of Counts One and Two, all such terms to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
- 2) You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
- 3) You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
- 4) You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
- 5) You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
- 6) You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Scott Steever

CASE NUMBER: CR-14-00639-002 EMC

Judgment - Page 4 of 8

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of RELEASE, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
- 5) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 6) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with, for example), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 7) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by these and the special conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 8) You must work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 9) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. You must not associate, communicate, or interact with any person you know has been convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
- 10) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 11) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).

- If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to a third party, the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk. (check if applicable)

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall not maintain a position of fiduciary capacity without the prior permission of the probation officer.
2. The defendant shall pay any restitution and special assessment that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.
3. The defendant shall not open any new lines of credit and/or incur new debt without the prior permission of the probation officer.
4. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any financial information, including tax returns, and shall authorize the probation officer to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of income tax returns.
5. The defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant is to pay part or all cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. Payments shall never exceed the total cost of mental health counseling. The actual co-payment schedule shall be determined by the probation officer.
6. The defendant shall not have contact with any codefendant in this case, namely Robert Anderson.
7. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.
8. The defendant shall not own or possess any firearms, ammunition, destructive devices, or other dangerous weapons.
9. The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office, vehicle, or any property under his control to a search. Such a search shall be conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches.

- E Payment during the term of supervised release will commence within (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment. The court will set the payment plan based on an assessment of the defendant's ability to pay at that time; or
- F Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:
During imprisonment, payment of restitution is due at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter and payment shall be through the Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Once the defendant is on supervised release, the restitution must be paid in monthly payments of not less than $100 or at least 10 percent of earnings, whichever is greater, to commence no later than 60 days from placement on supervision. Any established payment plan does not preclude enforcement efforts by the US Attorney's Office if the defendant has the ability to pay more than the minimum due. The restitution payments shall be made to the Clerk of U.S. District Court, Attention: Financial Unit, 450 Golden Gate Ave., Box 36060, San Francisco, CA 94102. The Court gives notice that this case involves other defendants who may be held jointly and severally liable for payment of all or part of the restitution ordered herein and may order such payment in the future, but such future orders do not affect this defendant's responsibility for the full amount of the restitution ordered.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of the court.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.
